INNOVATION IN BUSINESS
CONFERENCE

MAY 18-19
2010

*The 4th annual event for Montana's private sector businesses, and professionals representing workforce development, education,
and economic development.*

Governor Brian Schweitzer
Keith Kelly, Commissioner

Montana

Department of Labor and Industry

Commissioner's Office

May 18, 2010

As Commissioner for Montana Department of Labor and Industry, I would like to welcome you to the fourth annual Montana Innovation in Business Conference. Our agenda was planned with our business partners in mind. We hope these efforts will provide you valuable information, as a business owner or leader in your organization.

Our keynote speaker, Richard Pimentel, nationally renowned expert on Disability Management, will present Disability Matters...New Developments in ADAAA and Issues Regarding Returning Veterans. In his presentation, Richard will share a first-hand look at the history of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and how and why it was re-written into the ADA Amendment Act. As an additional treat, Richard will be presenting Windmills, an interactive exercise guiding participants to consider how their attitudes and reactions toward disabilities affects employment and the supervision decision process.

Additional presentations will be given by Montana State Fund and Workers Compensation. Dr. Ben Bissell and Russ Cherry will present on Managing Change in Uncertain Times. John Klamann and Patty Nordlund will discuss Small Business Incentives and SBA Services.

Jason Ritchie will present on Human Resource Law. Tina Whiting will present the Business Benefits of Hiring Veterans. Ann Clancy, PhD will offer a 3-hour strategic-planning session entitled 5 Key Actions to Bring out the Best in Your Business. An employer panel will discuss Maintaining a Business Edge.

Dan McArthur, an Organizational Psychologist who works with a variety of organizations, will present The 71% Advantage which leverages the analogy that when geese fly in a 'V' formation they are able to fly 71% further. Dan's presentation Core Values Index is an interactive exercise to help you understand the contributions you prefer to make and the strategies you prefer to use.

Both days offer networking breakfasts and Tuesday offers a networking luncheon. Thank you for attending the 2010 Montana Innovation in Business Conference. I hope you will enjoy the next two days of learning, networking, and information sharing.

Sincerely,

Handwritten signature of Keith Kelly.

Commissioner

SPEAKERS

Tom Spika, founder, president, and general manager, Spika Welding & Mfg—Tom Spika was born, raised, and has lived his life in Central Montana. Majoring in Metals Technology at NMC Havre, Tom graduated in 1981 and returned to operate the family farm. From 1991 through 1999, he worked for HCR Incorporated of Lewistown, where he performed both production and supervisory roles within a production/manufacturing environment.

Tom and his wife Carol founded the Montana Aviary Company in the late 90's, manufacturing furniture-quality aviaries for small cage birds, designed for homes, offices, and care facilities. In 2001, they opened Spika Welding & Mfg in a shop located on their farm 25 miles west of Lewistown, offering design and manufacturing of specialized industrial equipment. In March of 2008, they moved into their new 15,000 sq foot facility on the west edge of Lewistown, where they now employ 24 full-time and several part-time workers.

Spika focuses on aviation ground support equipment for the military, primarily aluminum work stands and fall-protection platforms, with over $3M in annual sales. Their products are shipped to military aviation facilities throughout the US as well as in theater, and support numerous types of fixed and rotary wing aircraft for the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, National Guard, Army Reserve, and Department of Homeland Security. In addition to managing Spika, Tom continues as lead designer of new models and equipment that address the ever changing needs of the customer.

Tina Whiting, Veterans Intensive Services Coordinator, Dept. of Labor & Industry—In her role as Veterans Intensive Services Coordinator, Tina is the liaison between the Veterans Administration Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Division and the Montana Department of Labor and Industry's Workforce Services Division. She ensures veterans with disabilities are linked from training to employment. Tina serviced in the United States Marine Corps from 10/13/1992 through – 07/12/1999.

SPEAKERS

Keynote Speaker—Richard Pimentel, PhD, Milt Wright & Associates, Inc.—Richard Pimentel is one of the nation's leading experts in Job Retention, Public private partnerships, Leadership in a time of change and crises, disability management and accelerated return-to-work programs. He is internationally known as a wonderful humorous storyteller. As a consultant to public and private employers, he has designed a series of creative management systems that have set new standards for productivity improvement and cost savings. A few of his clients include Laidlaw Corporation, Motorola, James River Corporation, The Society of Human Resource Management and the State of Georgia.

Pimentel's outspoken and often entertaining insights into employer-employee relationships and the nonsense of many traditional approaches to improved productivity, mark him as one of the leaders in our evolving field.

Dr. Ben Bissell—After earning a bachelor's degree in Psychology, Dr. Ben Bissell earned his doctorate degree with a concentration in the area of Organization and Human Behavior. He continued his postgraduate work at the Medical College of Virginia, where he taught courses on the emotional care of patients and worked with department staffs on how to manage conflict. Dr. Ben Bissell has continued an interest in group dynamics, and he teaches over 150 programs annually to companies, organizations, schools, and hospitals.

Early in his career Ben Bissell served as a counselor at hospitals in Miami, Florida and Richmond, Virginia. He was appointed director of a Virginia counseling center where he developed his professional demeanor, understanding, and empathy for the problems people face in the workplace as well as at home. Insights from Dr. Bissell's programs have been printed in major magazines and newspapers across the country, including the Wall Street Journal. He has often been interviewed on radio and television shows and answered audience call-in questions. Dr. Ben Bissell's versatility enriches companies, organizations, schools, hospitals, and national conventions.
